In addition to the amazing architecture of Laconia's historic churches, comes a rich history ... those lost to fire and those rebuilt after fire ... buildings raised to add a second level and steeples lowered ... and even those that have moved across town and face a new beginning. Save room for dessert, because Kellerhaus will be the last stop before heading home. Bus pick-up on the Laconia Campus begins at 11:15 AM. Early sign-up was advertised for this trip. The bus will begin picking up residents on the Laconia Campus at 11:15 AM.

Friday – March 27 – Lunch at the Pleasant Street Restaurant in Claremont followed by a visit to the the Bascom Maple Farm in Acworth [Moderate – walking through the production area] The restaurant is casual dining and the menu offers steak, seafood, chicken and pasta, appetizers, soups, salads and sandwiches. Reviewers say the food is excellent and the service is awesome. The Bascom family, related to Taylor Community resident Shirley Powers, have been maple producers for several generations and love to educate others about their production. This farm is the largest maple producer in the Northeast. The store is filled with maple items; Resident Life Coordinator Sue Williams thinks that one of the best items is their Maple Cotton Candy. She purchased a bag last year and could not stop eating it, so her bag was empty upon the return home. Since the roads can be a little challenging, we will use the small bus for this trip. The bus will begin picking up residents on the Laconia campus at 9:00 AM. Please plan on eating an early lunch around 11:00 AM.
